

JAPANESE AMERICAN SERVICE COMMITTEE

1991-1992 ANNUAL REPORT

THE COMMITMENT

THE Commitment

For 46 years the Japanese American Service Committee has extended its hand to the Japanese American community, and to quote French writer and philosopher Jean-Paul Sartre "...each of the gestures carried the weight of a commitment."

The commitment began after World War II when thousands of Japanese Americans left detention camps and sought a new life in cities like Chicago. The JASC was started in 1946 with a mission to improve the lives of these people and provided programs stressing acclimatization in a new environment and citizenship preparation.

The commitment continued through the years as JASC served its constituency with programs dealing with employment assistance, sheltered workshop, meal service, adult day care and health services.

Today the commitment shines brighter than ever as we prepare to enter the latest stage of our commitment... that of opening the JASC Keiro Nursing Home.

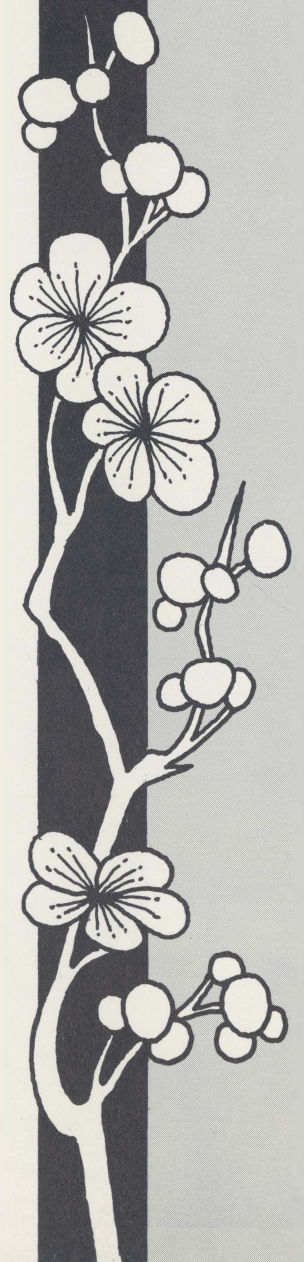

In this Annual Report you will see commitment displayed in the President's Message, the Executive Director's Report, our report on the Keiro Nursing Home and in the highlights of the year. The commitment is present when we discuss the services we provide and there is a definite commitment by our membership which gives the JASC financial and other support.

Commitment is also exemplified by those who respond to our different fund drives such as the Holiday Appeal, Contributor's Fund, General Contributions, Memorial and Matching Gifts. We also appreciate the commitment of corporations and foundations which provide us with support and of the many Japanese companies which are doing business in Chicago and have become our corporate members.

Towards the end of this report you will find a listing of our Board of Directors. Their commitment is of utmost importance to us.

Please share with us our commitment to our community and others that we serve.

Welcome aboard our commitment.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

With the biggest undertaking in JASC history-- that of the construction of the Keiro Nursing Home-- now an accomplished fact, our organization has to look ahead and stand ready to meet new challenges in the immediate future and beyond.

Of course, while the physical plant of Keiro now is more than 80 per cent completed, there remains much to be done before doors open as expected early next spring. Among the immediate concerns is hiring an administrator for the home, getting on board other staff, starting to screen applicants to the home and attending to the myriad of details which accompany the opening of an $8.3 million facility.

I am certain that all these things will fall into place thanks to the hard and devoted efforts of the Keiro Nursing Home Committee, headed by Thomas S. Teraji who succeeded the late Richard Yamada, Sr., its first chairman.

Our second fund drive is still about $520,000 short of goal and we shall work hard in the coming months to reach the $970,000 needed to cover start-up costs and the expected deficit in the first 18-months of operation. The opening of the JASC Keiro Nursing Home will mean another step in the JASC Long Range Committee's plan to complement the care of senior citizens in the community and those residing in Heiwa Terrace retirement complex which JASC sponsored and erected 11 years ago. Although the JASC Board of Directors will set the overall policies of the nursing home, our community organizations will be represented by the JASC Keiro Advisory Board which will be informed on all phases of the project's operation.

Besides the successful operation of the Keiro Nursing Home, visions of the future for JASC hold many challenges in other areas. How we see JASC in the next years and even into the next millennium, our Executive Director Masaru Nambu will discuss in his report.

Finally, on behalf of the JASC Board of Directors, I wish to acknowledge the great support we have received from our community people and organizations. We also have been helped a great deal by members of the Futabakai PTA as well as by officers and members of the Japanese Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Chicago. We have received much guidance and help from the Chicago Consulate General's staff and officers headed by Consul General Toshiaki Tanabe. Also thanks for the continued support and cooperation provided by the publisher and editor of Chicago Shimpō, Frank Sugano, and Kay Kawaguchi, general manager.

Arthur T. Morimitsu
President, JASC

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Commitment is the characteristic which runs throughout the 46-year history of the Japanese American Service Committee.

It began then, when nearly 20,000 Japanese Americans found themselves in Chicago... a strange and unfamiliar "metropolis" for those who had been accustomed to the balmy climate of the West Coast. They came here after the infamous detention camps were dissolved following World War II.

The first commitment was made then. Leaders of the Japanese American community decided to create a self-help organization to insure that all Japanese Americans who planned to start a new life in Chicago would get some assistance. The JASC (under a different name) was born.

It was that commitment that provided the new arrivals with some of the most pressing needs, such as housing, employment, adjustment to a new environment, naturalization assistance and other services.

But, the first commitment was just the beginning. Through the years, the JASC has lived up to a series of commitments as it faced each changing need of the Japanese American community in Chicago. Our emphasis in the past, and present, has been primarily in the field of aging. We served the Isseis with a sheltered workshop and constructed the Heiwa Terrace to provide housing to them and other Asian and non-Asian elderly. Our commitment led us to opening an Adult Day Care Center, and it continued to planning a nursing home for Asian elderly... a dream that began 11 years ago.

Today, the JASC Keiro Nursing Home is almost a reality. Another commitment fulfilled.

As we approach a half-century mark in our history, we continue to be committed to those we intend to serve.

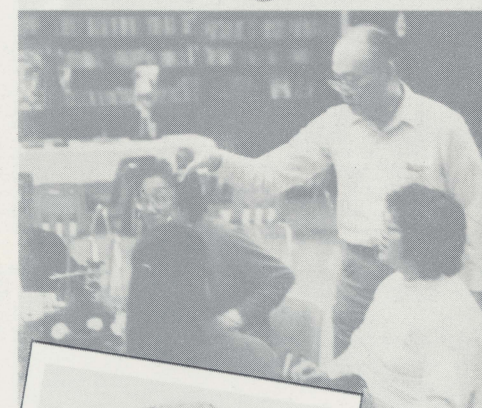

Our focus is now shifting from the Isseis and Niseis to the Sansei and Yonsei (third and fourth generation of Japanese Americans.) We are planning programs so that they may find their lives more meaningful and more enriching.

We have a vision of providing a Community Center with programs of ethnic identity and enrichment of heritage and culture. This Center would be built as a new JASC headquarters with meeting rooms and activity spaces on the grounds of the Keiro Nursing Home. It would also include assisted living facilities for those who need housing accommodations to continue independent living style, but are not ready to enter a nursing home.

Another commitment we have is to establish an endowment fund to provide a long-term financial stability for our organization.

Our commitment is to make all these things happen... and we invite you to join this vision and commitment as we strive toward our Golden Anniversary.

Masaru Nambu
Executive Director

KEIRO NURSING HOME

The dream became a commitment.

And the commitment became a reality at the start of the 1991-92 fiscal year when in July of 1991 the foundations were laid for the JASC Keiro Nursing home on a 4.5 acre site at Foster and Springfield avenues in Chicago.

By the end of this fiscal year, the exterior of the facility was completed. Interior work began and the first Asian American nursing home in the Midwest area is scheduled to open in the Spring of 1993... a testimonial to the indomitable fortitude of an organization, JASC, and the Japanese American community.

Throughout the decade which preceded the start of the construction, challenges and road-blocks were many. Dealing with city, state and federal agencies to obtain needed permits and secure financing, took years. While the community responded favorably to the initial fund drive which raised $1.3 million, this money was spent for the site purchase and other expenses associated with obtaining the $6.8 million mortgage loan guaranteed by the federal government.

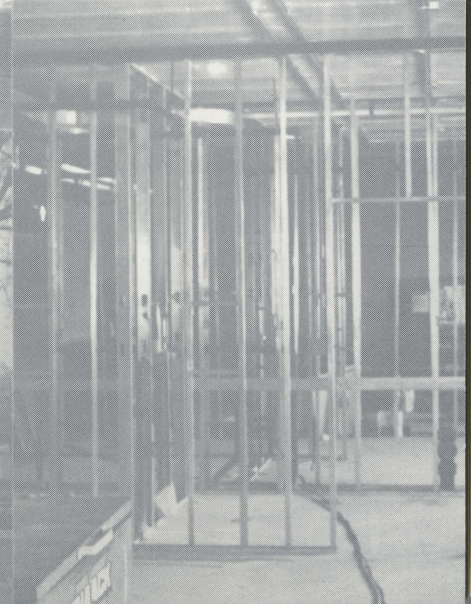

A second fund drive was launched in October of 1991, to raise $970,000 which would cover start-up costs and the first 18 months of operation... a period through which the home is expected to operate at a deficiency because of less than 100 percent occupation.

At the close of this fiscal year the drive had raised $450,000, falling $520,000 short of the goal. The drive will continue until the goal is met.

Concerning the JASC Keiro Nursing Home, the 1991-92 fiscal year has been a landmark. A dream that has been realized... a commitment fulfilled.

KEIRO NURSING HOME TODAY

HIGHLIGHTS OF 1991 - 1992

While without a question the progress of the construction of the JASC Keiro Nursing Home was the highlight of the year, there were other events which made the last year a memorable one in JASC history.

The Fuji Festival, always a delight, was no exception this year. Honored was the law firm of Masuda, Funai, Eifert and Mitchell, Ltd., which has served the Japanese American Service Committee since its inception in 1946. The late Thomas S. Masuda served as JASC's second president from 1949 to 1951 and until his death in 1986 took personal and professional interest in JASC.

Entertainment at the Fuji Fest was provided by Lane Nishikawa, a sansei who is critically acclaimed on the West Coast as a playwright and a performer. As usual there were plenty of raffle and door prizes.

The annual Christmas Delight Sale added a new twist this year. There were special programs for children from the Tampopo Kai school which featured Japanese songs, games and other cultural presentations. Of course, those attending also enjoyed shopping for holiday ornaments, chinaware, gift items from around the world and a variety of handcrafted items and ceramics. The event raised nearly $2,000 for JASC.

"The Taste of Oshogatsu", a celebration of the traditional Japanese New Year's food in a traditional setting also was a first for JASC. More than 40 persons attending sampled more than 10 kinds of traditional Osechi Ryori foods and heard the meaning of each food and how it was prepared.

On February 19, 1992 more than 100 people packed the JASC headquarters to observe the "Day of Remembrance..." the 50th anniversary of signing Executive Order 9066 the infamous document which sent loyal Japanese Americans to detention camps. It was a memorable, tear-filled occasion. The event was sponsored jointly by JASC and JACL.

The annual Market Day was as usual a success. It raised $12,500 for JASC and set records in both attendance and income.

There were many internal successes, such as a complete computerization of our office, retaining the Search Developmental Center on our premises and increasing our list of Japanese corporations which became members of JASC. There were also some setbacks, the most notable being the lack of foundation and corporation support to our agency.

In review it can be concluded that FY 91-92 was a very good year for us. Well, maybe not "very", but a good one anyhow.

SERVICES WE OFFER OUR CLIENTS

The JASC commitment has always been to provide programs to serve the changing needs of our client community.

Today, while only a few Isseis remain, we are concentrating on services for our Nisei contingent, but while we are concerned with the needs of the Niseis, we also have to look at the future and anticipate the role the Sanseis will play in our organization. We also look forward to serving the Yonsei (fourth generation Japanese Americans) and assisting them in maintaining their cultural heritage. Our future endeavor will be planning programs for the Sanseis and Yonseis.

In fiscal 1992 we served our community with the following programs:

THE PARISH NURSE PROGRAM was started early in 1991 as a joint venture with the Swedish Covenant Hospital. It began after a survey indicated that health issues are of prime importance to the Japanese American community. Working with JASC and Buddhist and Christian Japanese American churches it provides health education, health screening and personal counseling on health issues.

Last fiscal year the program provided health presentations to 475 persons; gave blood pressure tests to 112 people; answered more than 60 health issue telephone calls; made three home visits; 10 referrals to doctors, and wrote 16 health care articles for various audiences.

Our ADULT DAY CARE PROGRAM served on the average 19 clients per day, totaling 27,733 hours of service. Adult Day Care aims to keep elderly out of institutions and offers activities in a group setting with help older adults to improve their physical and mental condition. Participants get a noon meal (4,902 served last year) and have the opportunity to eat together with others. They participate in a number of activities and special events, such as field trips, ceramics, exercise and hear speakers on various subjects.

Social service and nursing staffs develop individual plans for each client and monitor their programs.

CASEWORK AND COUNSELING services in the past year worked with 242 clients, of them 204 Japanese Americans. The total hours of service provided were 2,610. This is a program which assists clients to achieve adequate psychological and social life. The counselor speaks Japanese and deals with questions involving financial and health issues as well as formulating plans for the elderly.

HOME SUPPORT SERVICES involve cleaning shopping, laundry, food preparation, personal care, nutritional service and hygiene education to the elderly either at Heiwa Terrace, a senior citizen's residential center, or at other locations.

During the past year, the chore housekeepers provided a total of 20,827 hours of service to 161 clients. Of them, 86 were Asians, six African Americans and 69 Caucasians.

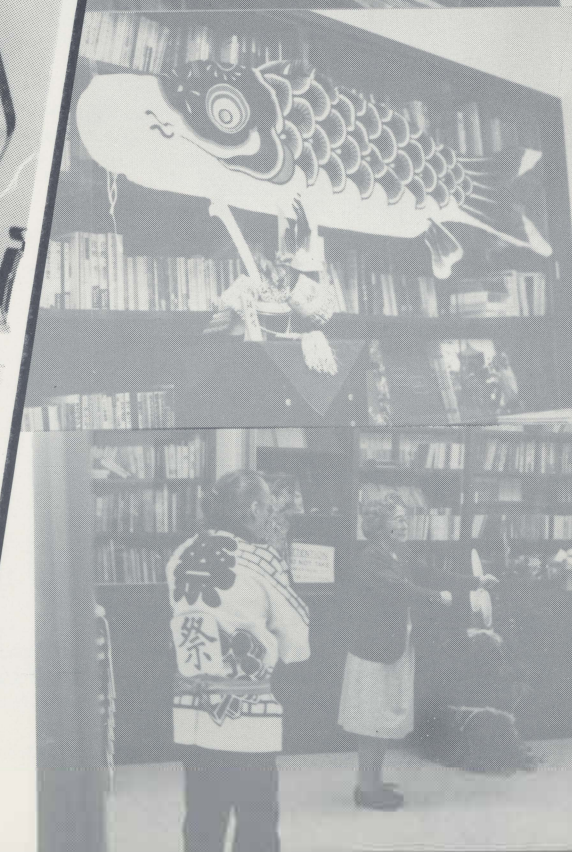

GROUP SERVICES is a program which provides educational classes such as Tai-Chi (oriental exercise), Minyo (folk music and dance), origami (paper folding), kaminingyo (paper doll construction), ceramics and a Japanese language class.

A total of 1,126 persons were served representing 17,875 client hours.

Programs on health and education are presented by this service as well as city-sponsored nutrition and "Meals on Wheels" services for home-bound elderly. The nutrition program served 6,080 meals to 216 persons (excluding Adult Day Care clients). A total of 4,434 meals were delivered to the homes of 18 participants.
