Dear Friends:

Our 1994-1995 Annual Report "Creating New Circumstances" reflects JASC's agenda going into our fiftieth year of operation. "Creating New Circumstances" is the product of the JASC Board of Directors' self examination of our role in the Japanese American community. As a result of changes in the Japanese American community and the recent past focus of JASC, we feel somewhat unsure about the needs of our community and the challenges of operating as a community based social service provider in the next decade.

Since our membership has always driven our direction, we surveyed our members to see what they thought about the JASC and where we should be going. The pages of "Creating New Circumstances" reflects various responses. The concerns of our members, as well as your continuing support will determine in what direction JASC's ultimate future lies.

We apologize for the delay in distributing this Report, but urge you to let us know what we can do to create new circumstances and continue to provide services into the twenty first century. Please do not hesitate to contact us to discuss your ideas for the future of JASC.

Yours truly,

Calvin Manshio
PresidentSunnan Kubose

In recognition of the JASC membership and to express the challenge of meeting the needs of our many members today, the 1994-1995 Annual Report profiles six members who represent the diverse views and ideas of the individuals whom we serve. ## CREATING NEW CIRCUMSTANCES

JASC began fiscal year 1994-1995 in July, 1994, with the near completion of the Keiro Extended Care Center Project. By Purchase and Management Agreements, signed in June, 1994, actual control of the Keiro facility passed to the Itex Corporation at the beginning of the fiscal year. Final sale closing and payment of most of the outstanding debt did not, however, occur until December, 1994.

In August, 1994, the JASC Board met to review the state of the agency, our finances, our programs and our future. These initial long range planning meetings were followed with continuous discussions on how the agency could manage the "new circumstances" we faced and confront the many perceived unanswered questions relating to the Keiro project. In February, 1995, the Board reviewed the issues surrounding Keiro and our future. Certain conclusions were reached and others were left unresolved. In April, 1995, a draft reflecting initial conclusions was circulated among the Board members. Further comments led to revisions by the Board and, in June, 1995, our conclusions on the Keiro project and our current circumstances were provided in a written report, "Rethinking the JASC" at our annual meeting. An overall recommendation and list of objectives are included in this Annual Report. Copies of the full report are available from the JASC office with the payment of ten dollars to cover copying costs and mailing charges.

During the fiscal year the leadership of third generation Sansei on the JASC Board came to the forefront. Bob Kumaki led the Board in creating a new circumstance for our annual fundraiser. Through his efforts the band, Hiroshima, came to Chicago and performed at Fuji Festival. JASC Board members Nancy Yamamoto-Yoshida, Sandra R. Otaka, Don Sakamoto and Lori Yokoyama obtained corporate contributions for our fundraiser, and a new event, the silent auction, was introduced.

Sandra Yamate and Brian Witkowski refocused Christmas Delight on our Yonsei and Gosei generations and their Nisei grandparents. Glenn Sugiyama used his contacts with Santa Claus to prove St. Nick was really Japanese and Sandra R. Otaka hosted a show for all generations that included taiko drums, minyo dancing, a purple dinosaur and a sing along with Keith and Betty Uchima.

The new year, 1995, began with a really new circumstance, the search for someone to succeed Rev. Masaru Nambu as JASC Executive Director. After almost thirty-two years of service, Rev. Nambu had decided to retire. Filling his "shoes" proved to be a monumental task, and the Board spent four months establishing criteria, soliciting candidates and reviewing resumes. In May, 1995, Rev. Sunnan Kubose was unanimously selected as Rev. Nambu's successor. To honor Rev. Nambu's many contributions to JASC, the Board established and funded through personal donations the Rev. Masaru Nambu Internship Program. Its purpose is to provide an opportunity for students to serve the community, while receiving a small stipend. Contributions from the community and JASC members are ongoing.

During the Spring we discussed providing assistance to the Sansei Yonsei Athletic Association. Their efforts in organizing a basketball clinic at the Ravenswood Fellowship United Methodist Church and Bethany United Church of Christ were the type of new circumstances JASC sought to create.

JASC Secretary Chieko Onoda solicited volunteer nurses for our Annual Health Fair and Dr. Itsuro Uchino, once again, rallied doctors and other specialists to staff our Health Fair.

In June, 1995, May Nakano chaired JASC Market Day and introduced more Japanese food and a return to 1950s prices for our Chicken Teriyaki. The special price was made possible by a generous donation from the McDonald's Corporation of Tyson Chicken arranged by Board member Kathryn Mlsna. JASC provided part of that donation to Ravenswood Fellowship United Methodist Church, Heiwa Terrace and the Buddhist Temple of Chicago.

Review of our record-keeping system was spearheaded by Board member Roy Iwata. After reviewing hundreds of written documents, Roy created electronic lists for the Keiro Donors' Dedication/Memorial Plaque. Hopefully, the move to a more computerized office system will be beneficial to our membership in other ways, as well.

Through the efforts of our Assistant Secretary Peggy C. Wallace, JASC became aware of Tohkon Judo Academy's search for a new facility. Following discussions on Tohkon's plans and a tour of the building, JASC Vice President Brian Witkowski developed plans for a tenant build-out in the northeast section of our Clark Street building. A license agreement was signed between JASC and Tohkon on June 12, 1995. Construction is creating a new circumstance for JASC, as well as a new partner in services to the community.

The Program Committee, under Vice President Kiyō Yoshimura, organized more classes at different times on Japanese culture, crafts and cooking throughout the year. Kiyō and her committee continue to create new circumstances for JASC. One of these, a fashion extravaganza by the Sansei fashion house Kanojo, is planned for March, 1996.

A review of how JASC is structured to provide services to the community and communicates with its members is currently under review. Much remains to be done, but the Board is working to create more “new circumstances” for JASC. As you review this year’s annual report please note the contributions of our members. Without their support of our activities, programs and services, we could not operate. We begin FY 1995-1996 determined to create the “new circumstances” necessary to revitalize ourselves in our 50th year of service to the community.

“The JASC is an important part of the Japanese American community. It distresses me to know that more people could be members and do not support the JASC. The programs are needed and need to continue. It's a comfort to know there is an organization like the JASC to which we can count on for support when needed.”

Mr. Henry Fujiura has been a member of the JASC since its early days, having settled in Chicago after being interned in Arizona and discharged from military service in 1946. He was the owner of Superior Auto Service, Inc. in Chicago and is currently retired.

“My Japanese heritage is reflected in the faces of my children. Soon they will ask “Who am I?” It could be JACS’s mission to be part of the answer, becoming a center for youth and family programs, and the arts, as well as coordinating efforts between community organizations. With leadership and guidance JASC can help our children realize their heritage and become whoever and whatever they like.”

Mrs. Linda Murakishi Whitted has a law degree and is on the board of directors of Heiwa Terrace, the Buddhist Temple of Chicago, and the Japanese American Historical Society. She has been a member of the JASC for several years. Mrs. Whitted resides in Northbrook with her husband Brooke and their children Ross and Layne.

“For me Adult Day Care is a lifesaver. I'm the sole caretaker of my mother and the program allows me to continue caring for her. I marvel at the staff and volunteers at the center. They are very good.”

Ms. June Oda has been a member of the JASC for many years. For the past year she has been taking her mother to the Adult Day Care program. Ms. Oda is retired but continues to teach piano lessons.

“I became a JASC member when I joined the board of directors of the JASC Housing Corporation (Heiwa Terrace). The current leadership of the JASC recognizes that the demographics of the Japanese American community has changed. The Tohkon Judo Academy is a positive indication of JASC's new direction.”

Mr. Bruce Kosaka has been a member of the JASC since 1992 and serves on the board of directors for Heiwa Terrace. Mr. Kosaka is the owner of United Bindery.

“Forty to fifty years ago, the JASC was one of the organizations that helped the Japanese to become citizens and to find jobs and homes. It has been a very good organization and I think we now need to start working on the Sansei, to give them the activities that they need.”

Mr. Jim Kawakami has been a member of the JASC since the mid 1940s when the JASC was the Chicago Resettlers' Committee. He continues to support the organization as a volunteer, joining other members in coordinating JASC mailings. Mr. Kawakami worked for many years in the auto body repair business and is currently retired.

“Like many families, we’re involved in the activities that our children are involved in. If there are activities for the children at JASC, the parents will also be there.”

Mrs. Linda Tademoto

“The JASC is one organization that can bridge the differences in the Japanese community and bring people together. Too often we’re isolated in small groups. It’s important for our children to see that there is a larger Japanese American community in Chicago beyond our affiliation of churches and clubs.”

Mr. Kenji Tademoto

The Tademoto family has had a JASC family membership since 1994 and for many years have been involved in the Tohkon Judo Academy, which recently made its home in the JASC building. Mr. Kenji Tademoto is the owner of Tademoto Mechanical, a heating and air-conditioning company. Mrs. Linda Tademoto is a grade school teacher. Their two children, Gregory and Jeffrey, attend schools in Chicago.

In June, 1994, Itex Corporation purchased the Keiro Extended Care Center from the Japanese American Service Committee ("JASC") and agreed that the contributions of over two thousand individuals and companies should be recognized. Following compilation of donor lists by the JASC, a multi-panel design was chosen to list every donor. The central panel provides the dedication:

These facilities were made possible through generous donations from the Japanese American community to the JASC. Through these contributions, JASC was able to transform a dream into working medical assistance facility in October, 1993.

In addition, there is a wall plaque next to the Japanese Garden in the lobby that also pays tribute to all the donors. This plaque reads:

In tribute to the unrelenting support and dedication of the Japanese community and many individuals who made significant contributions to helping realize the vision for Keiro Extended Care Center, this building is dedicated, "The Keiro Pavilion."

The planning and construction of the Keiro Extended Care Center, now called the Harmony Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, was accomplished through generous donations from members of the Japanese American Community. To all the friends of the Keiro Extended Care Center, the JASC is deeply grateful for your contributions and would like to thank each of you for your thoughtful and charitable support.
