Adult Day Services

Our ADS program provides seniors who require supervision a safe and active environment where their chronic illnesses can be managed and monitored. We provide professional medical care in a socially active environment where they can exercise and sustain their physical and cognitive well-being. These services also benefit family caregivers with much needed respite which decreases stress-related illnesses, work absenteeism, loss of employment, and family instability and dysfunction.

Social Work Services

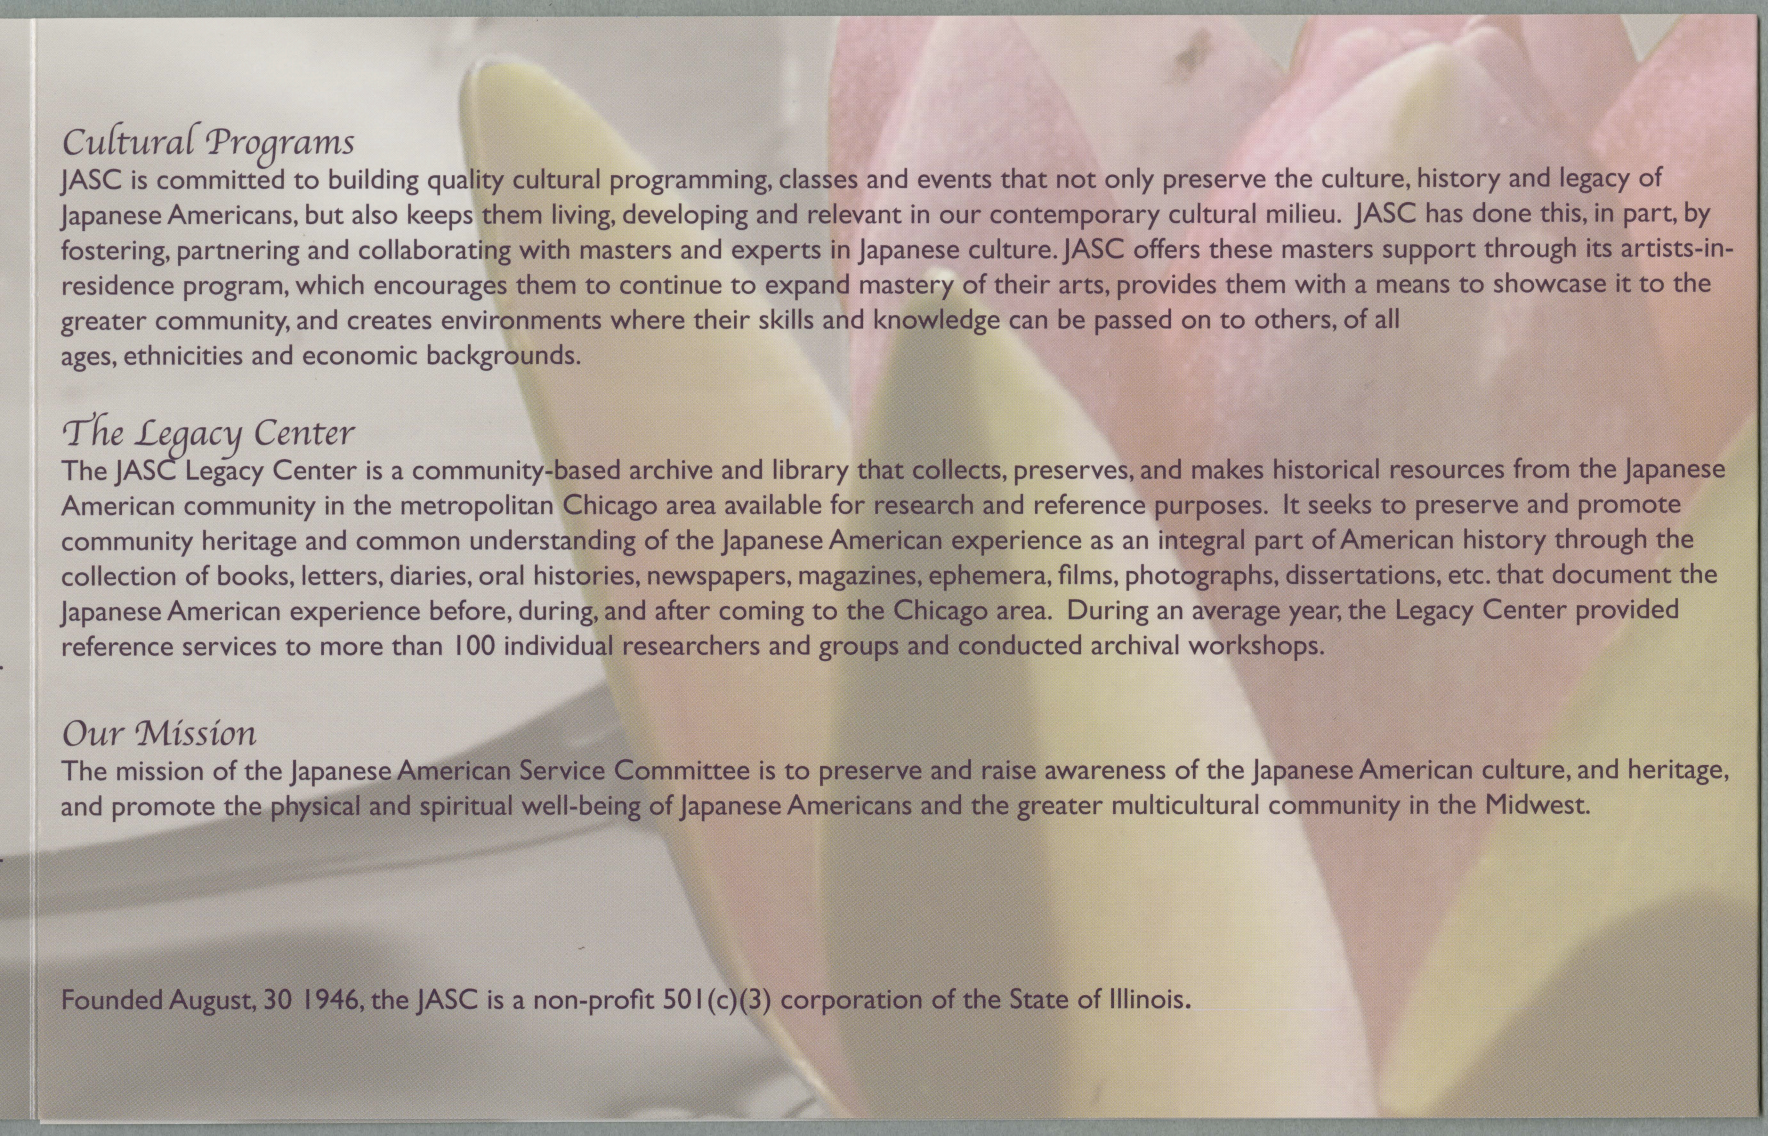

Our Social Work program offers linguistically and culturally competent licensed social workers who assist people from all over the Midwest. Individual, family and group counseling provides emotional and psychological support and focuses on strengthening coping skills to deal with issues such as intergenerational relationships, language and cultural difficulties, health challenges and preparation for death and dying.

Home Support Services

Home Support Services (HSS) assists seniors, many of whom are disabled or suffer from a chronic illness, in their homes with household tasks such as cleaning, planning and preparing meals, grocery shopping, transportation to doctors' appointments, and picking up prescriptions. Homemakers help with personal care tasks such as dressing, grooming and adhering to special diets. Homemakers also assist seniors with translations for personal business (medical, legal, financial).

Out-of-the-House

Out-of-the-House addresses the needs of seniors who live alone or with family members, but are isolated during the day when their caregivers work or are isolated due to geographic location. Most have lost their social network of friends because of illness, frailty or death and use this group as their network of connection to peers. Out of the House offers exercise, socialization and activities which are directed toward keeping the seniors active and from isolation; well documented causal factors associated with early nursing home placement. In addition, our social work staff provides group counseling sessions that address some of the key mental health and wellness issues of seniors.

Cultural Programs

JASC is committed to building quality cultural programming, classes and events that not only preserve the culture, history and legacy of Japanese Americans, but also keeps them living, developing and relevant in our contemporary cultural milieu. JASC has done this, in part, by fostering, partnering and collaborating with masters and experts in Japanese culture. JASC offers these masters support through its artists-in-residence program, which encourages them to continue to expand mastery of their arts, provides them with a means to showcase it to the greater community, and creates environments where their skills and knowledge can be passed on to others, of all ages, ethnicities and economic backgrounds.

The Legacy Center

The JASC Legacy Center is a community-based archive and library that collects, preserves, and makes historical resources from the Japanese American community in the metropolitan Chicago area available for research and reference purposes. It seeks to preserve and promote community heritage and common understanding of the Japanese American experience as an integral part of American history through the collection of books, letters, diaries, oral histories, newspapers, magazines, ephemera, films, photographs, dissertations, etc. that document the Japanese American experience before, during, and after coming to the Chicago area. During an average year, the Legacy Center provided reference services to more than 100 individual researchers and groups and conducted archival workshops.

Our Mission

The mission of the Japanese American Service Committee is to preserve and raise awareness of the Japanese American culture, and heritage, and promote the physical and spiritual well-being of Japanese Americans and the greater multicultural community in the Midwest.

Founded August, 30 1946, the JASC is a non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation of the State of Illinois.
